

“The environment is God's gift to everyone,
and in our use of it we have a responsibility
towards the poor, towards future generations
and towards humanity as a whole.”

Pope Benedict XVI, Caritas in Veritate, No. 48, 2009

The St. Albert the Great Forum on Theology & Science presents:

Caring for God’s Creation in the 21st Century: Reflections on Theology, Science, Climate Change and Our Interconnected Global Environment

Dr. Katie Hirschboeck

Monday, May 2, 2011 at 7:30 p.m.

The University of Arizona Catholic Newman Center

Dr. Hirschboeck is a climate scientist on the faculty of the Laboratory of Tree-Ring Research and Chair of the Global Change Graduate Interdisciplinary Program. She holds joint appointments in Hydrology & Water Resources, Atmospheric Sciences, and the School of Geography & Environment. She is also trained as one of 25 national Catholic Climate Ambassadors for the Catholic Coalition on Climate Change.

CatholicClimateCovenant.org

*The Newman Center is located on the northeast corner of Cherry Avenue & Second Street.
Parking is available in back; enter on First Street. The Forum meets downstairs in Green Hall.*

“The environment is God's gift to everyone,
and in our use of it we have a responsibility
towards the poor, towards future generations
and towards humanity as a whole.”

Pope Benedict XVI, Caritas in Veritate, No. 48, 2009

The St. Albert the Great Forum on Theology & Science presents:

Caring for God’s Creation in the 21st Century: Reflections on Theology, Science, Climate Change and Our Interconnected Global Environment

Dr. Katie Hirschboeck

Monday, May 2, 2011 at 7:30 p.m.

The University of Arizona Catholic Newman Center

Dr. Hirschboeck is a climate scientist on the faculty of the Laboratory of Tree-Ring Research and Chair of the Global Change Graduate Interdisciplinary Program. She holds joint appointments in Hydrology & Water Resources, Atmospheric Sciences, and the School of Geography & Environment. She is also trained as one of 25 national Catholic Climate Ambassadors for the Catholic Coalition on Climate Change.

CatholicClimateCovenant.org

*The Newman Center is located on the northeast corner of Cherry Avenue & Second Street.
Parking is available in back; enter on First Street. The Forum meets downstairs in Green Hall.*